Brand New Book  Print on Demand .One evening in 1980, a friend and I were chatting on a sofa. She turned to me and said, Someone told me something about you that I have difficulty believing. Oh? I responded. What s that? She said you used to be a recluse, my friend related. I find it hard to believe you were ever a recluse. I said, briefly, I was housebound with agoraphobia for several years, but things are fine now. I had, indeed, come a long way from being the teen-aged boy who was confined to a small corner of his bedroom, sitting on the floor, afraid to move. People who had helped me overcome agoraphobia had urged me to write a book about my struggle with agoraphobia. I was, they said, considered to have been one of the worst cases and had not been expected to recover, but there I was. The book could have been of some value. At the time, there was still relatively little being written about agoraphobia, and my book would, at least, have shown other sufferers they were...
