Reviews

*This publication is really gripping and exciting. It really is basic but unexpected situations in the 50 % in the book. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Historical Society New Mexico: No; 24, the Story of the Conquest of Santa Fe, New Mexico, and the Building of Old Fort Margy, A. D. 1846 This paper has been prepared rather hurriedly, as the text will disclose, in the hope that its perusal may inspire a number of our loyal citizens with a desire to participate financially in the restoration of one of the most notable military landmarks of the great southwest - Old Fort Marcy; built in 1846 upon an eminence immediately adjacent on the northeast to the old Spanish Presidio in New Mexico s capital, known in the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries, and mentioned in all the ancient archives of the Kingdom of New Mexico as the Casas Reales (Royal Houses) and El Palaeio Real (Royal Palace). The site of this landmark in the progress of civilization from the Missouri to the Pacific, now the property of Hon. L. Bradford Prince and Mrs. Mary C. Prince, has been most generously tendered by them to the public for park and commemorative purposes, upon certain conditions always contemplated and provided for in donations of similar character, viz.: That the site shall always be used for the purposes mentioned and that certain improvements and installations be made within a reasonable period. This magnificent gift to posterity presents more than mere local appeal. It is of state and nationwide importance. No single spot in the great southwest is more replete, in tradition, legend or recorded historical event, in the interest which envelops this landmark in the story of American sovereignty. In a land where every mile marks a monument in the history of the country,...
