O. , 2007. LC Number: KF26 . V4 2007a OCLC Number: (OCoLC)145742311 Subject: Veterans -- Services for -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 include clinical practice guidelines in managing care, and that is both DOD and VA practitioners getting involved to develop these guidelines; in the mental health arena, specifically with PTSD; patient safety practices; in deployment health and research; in contingency planning; in financial management that addresses VA and DOD billing and reimbursement issues; in joint facility utilization, which I will talk about later; information management and information technology; in the pharmacy area; in medical materiel acquisition and procurement; in VA DOD shared high-technology medical contracts; in shared continuing medical education and training opportunities; and also in benefits delivery. I think one of our signature successes has been in joint facility utilization. For example, at the North Chicago VA Medical Center, which is side-by-side with the Navy training facility in North Chicago, there was previously a VA medical center and a DOD hospital right across the fence from each other, probably about a mile apart or half a mile apart. We have gone forward in a joint effort that is a pilot, and the final stage is that the VA medical center stays in business. We have added surgical suites and an emergency room to that facility, which is usable by both the VA community and the Navy community. And we are in the process of designing and building an outpatient ambulatory facility that we will have a groundbreaking for later on this spring. That ambulatory facility will be...
