Our hearts are bowed and stricken at the judgment of Almighty God, who hath stretched forth his hand from the folds of eternity and taken to himself the Chief Magistrate of this nation. Another great man has fallen, and the voice of lamentation and wailing resounds through every loyal city, village, and hamlet of this Union. The faces of the sons and daughters of Columbia are bathed in tributary tears, as when George Washington, father of his country, was translated from the arms of his compatriots to the skies. The mournful dirge in memory of our departed President is swelling as the sobbings of the melancholy ocean, and every demonstration which weeping sorrow can devise attests the depth and sincerity of the emotion which this bereaved nation now experiences.
