Foundation of Love (Paperback)

By Scotty Cade, Z B Marshall

Dreamspinner Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Years ago, Wes Stanhope fled his hometown of Charleston to escape the constraints of society and his controlling father, Colonel Robert Lee Stanhope IV. After completing medical school and building a successful practice in pediatric oncology in Seattle, Wes is called home for his mother s funeral and presented with an opportunity to build and run a children s hospital-his mother s legacy-a choice he ultimately makes despite his misgivings about his father s role as chairman of the hospital s board of directors. When Wes begins to build his team, he is introduced to a young, handsome black architect named Tyler Williams. Sparks begin to fly between the two men, and although Wes doesn t identify as gay, denying his attraction to Ty becomes impossible. But Ty won t be a dirty secret: if Wes wants to build a relationship, he ll have to come out, brave his father s racism and homophobia, and risk his chance to continue as the hospital s CEO and realize his mother s dream.
