Reviews

It is one of my personal favorite books. It is written in easy terms and never hard to understand. It has been designed in an exceedingly easy way and it is only after I finished reading this publication by which I in fact changed me, change the way I think.

Terra finds herself on Orion Station next to an ancient space artifact, the Geodite. When the Geodite comes alive again after centuries of dormancy, Terra s family must survive what comes through from the other side. Long ago the Geodite had gone dark, trapping many Continuum citizens on the planet Terra. Adonis, Athena and others struggle to survive the aftermath while making their way to one of the last Continuum out posts, Egypt, all the while trying to avoid the genetically engineered barbarian Hetero race that had been created by the Continuum in a failed experiment. With the barbarian Hetero population spreading across the planet like a plague, how will the Continuum population survive? What will happen to the Hetero population when the Gay and Lesbian Continuum returns to Terra? Mr. McWilson was born in Mississippi and grew up as a U.S. Army dependent and later served in the U.S. Navy. Mr. McWilson finally settled for a while in Chico California, graduating with honors from Butte College, earning his undergraduate degree from California State University, Chico, and entered California Western School of Law as an academic scholar. These days, Mr. McWilson is a happily married lawyer...
