The fox admires the cheese, not the raven. --Page 229. I HAVE heard tell of a man who did not know a great A from a bull s foot, and I know a good many who certainly could not tell what great A or little A either may mean; but some of these people are not the most ignorant in the world for all that. For instance, they know a cow s head from its tail, and one of the election gentlemen said lately that the candidate from London did not know that. They know that turnips don t grow on trees, and they can tell a mangold-wurtzel from a beet root, and a rabbit from a hare, and there are fine folk who play on pianos who hardly know as much as that. If they cannot read they can plough, and mow,...
